

Dress Code

A Sweetheart is under constant observation and must always conduct herself in a lady-like manner. Her dress needs to be fitting to the event and DeMolay decorum. It is her job to leave a shining image of DeMolay and herself, and how she dresses will determine that image.

The DeMolay members are proud of their Sweethearts and always want them to look their best at all types of functions. In addition, as members of Rainbow and Job's Daughters you are part of the Masonic Youth Family and are representing your organization as well as DeMolay. To maintain good relationships between all groups, dress and conduct should be in adherence to the organization to which they belong.
